January 2, 2018

juliegrates@ccs.k12.nc.us

Welcome back and Happy New Year! I hope you all had a relaxing and wonderful break. Thank you for everyone's help and support with our holiday celebration before we left.

If your child completed the winter break reading sheet- please be sure to send it in so they can get credit for this.

As we approach the midpoint of the school year we will be starting our middle of year assessments soon. Please keep encouraging your child to do their very best. Like stated in many conferences, the writing is the most challenging (for basically everyone). Please remind them to use details from the text to support their answers.
