

The Stupendous Superkids' Newsletter

Friday, March 16th, 2018

The Stupendous Superkids have read carefully to solve multistep fraction word problems, and identified the differences between main idea and theme!! Keep the denominator the same in solving fraction word problems; and drawing MI and Theme charts to be able to match the detail questions to the main idea/theme questions and score 100%!

The Stupendous Superkids have, as a class, already mastered a total of 1246 objectives in ACC Math (up 63 from last week😊)

3 Superkids who have met 50% of their March AR point goal with higher than 85% comprehension AND are at or above book level:
Patrick, Derek and Monique.
